The information in this document (Document) has been prepared by Osprey Mining Limited (Osprey or the Company), is strictly confidential and is provided to you for introductory discussion purposes only and to enable you to evaluate your interest in the opportunity referred to in it. Each recipient of the Document (you), by accepting it, agrees that you will not, and none of your employees, directors, agents, officers, advisers, associates and other representatives (together Representatives) will, copy, reproduce, distribute or otherwise disclose to others at any time the whole or any part of the Document without the prior written consent of the Company, and that you and your Representatives will keep confidential the Document and any information otherwise obtained from the Company and will use the Document and such other information solely to evaluate a possible investment in the Company. However, the Document should not be considered as an offer or invitation to subscribe for, or purchase, any securities in the Company or as any inducement to make an offer or invitation with respect to any such securities. The information in the Document does not and is not intended to constitute any 'valuation', 'formal valuation', 'appraisal', 'prior valuation', or a 'report, statement or opinion of an expert' for the purposes of any securities legislation in the UK or elsewhere, nor as constituting any financial product advice, or advice or opinion concerning tax, accounting or legal matters. The Document does not take account of any person's investment objectives, financial situation or particular needs. No agreement to subscribe for or purchase securities in the Company will be entered into on the basis of the Document.

The Document contains forecasts, projections and forward-looking information, which are not a guarantee of future performance and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties. Actual results and developments are likely to differ materially from those expressed or implied. Factors which could cause such material differences include, without limitation, fluctuations in market prices of metals and other commodities, exchange rate fluctuations, results of future exploration and development, future costs, availability of capital, changes in economic, social, political or market conditions, and changes in the regulatory environment. The Company has not audited or investigated the accuracy or completeness of the information, statements or opinions contained in the Document. Accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws, the Company makes no representation and gives no assurance, guarantee or warranty, express or implied, as to, and takes no responsibility and assumes no liability for, the authenticity, validity, accuracy, suitability or completeness of, or any errors in or omissions from, any information, statements or opinions contained in the Document.

You should not act, or refrain from acting, in reliance on the Document. The information in the Document does not purport to be all-inclusive or contain all information you may require in order to make an informed assessment of the future prospects of the Company. You should conduct your own investigation and analysis in order to satisfy yourself as to any matters referred to in the Document or otherwise, before making any investment decision.
